Clerk, U. S. District Court
Eastern District of Tennessee
At Chattanooga

Hawthorne, Judge McDonough

Section 403 of the First STEP ACT of 2019, which expanded the authority of district courts to grant defendant's motion for compassionate release based upon "extraordinary and compelling reasons" and pursuant to 18 U.S.C. 3582(c)(1)(A) pursuant to the provisions of the Criminal Justice Act, 18 U.S.C. 3006(a)(1) and (c), I understand that the court is authorized to grant or appoint me an attorney to assist me on the Compassionate Release Motion.

With Honors, I am asking you, if you will, to grant me a reduction in my sentence due to the extraordinary circumstances in which I am currently living in. Here at Butcher staff members and inmates both has test positive for the COVID-19, at a high rate. I work as a Inmate Companion (IC) assisting doctors, nurses and those in the psychiatry department to take care of the sick. As I write you and asking for your mercy there's an active case on the floor while I work. Officers that be escorting patients to their outside doctor appointments when they bring the patient back - the patient is then placed on a 14 day quarantine while the duty officers absent. This alone puts me and others at a higher risk of being exposed to the virus.

With Honors, I have issues with my health also. I have hypertension (high blood pressure), issues with my testicles, I've just recently been approve to have surgery for the removal of a golfball size cyst in the back of my head (I have medical records stating the type of cyst it is), I have to go back to see a specialist regarding a mass in my throat.

With Honors, I am asking you would you please show mercy in this matter. Since entering the federal system, I've been programming intensively also I have utilized the time I've spent being productive - applying myself of becoming a model citizen, a better father for my children, a better son to my mother and a more rounded and better individual.

I, Douglas C Bryant humbly ask the Courts fish appointment of attorney to assist me with my Compassion Release Motion.

Sincerely,
Douglas Bryant
